

Alfa Romeo Car Cup Holder, is part of the interior of the Alfa Romeo car component that serves as a place for drinks. The position of the cup holder is usually beside of the driver.

The challenge of making this checking fixture is that the size must be precise, and comply with bottle standards in Europe

This Checking Fixture (CF) type used to measure products using Dial Gauge, usually to measure the maximum dimensions of the product.